President's Message

The weather in Northern California is crazy, going from wet, cool weather to a furnace in a matter of a week! For our horses, it's time to get out the fly spray, fly boots, and sheets—and for us riders, to remember to wear lots of sun block.

At our April meeting, Connie Andrusiatis spoke to us about the current improvements being made to Camelot Equestrian Park. There are plans to install a covered arena, improve the stabling, and expand the camping area.

On May 9 starting at 6:00, CEA will hold its general meeting at the CEA arena in Upper Bidwell Park. Our own CEA members Megan and Kristin Grove will do a vaulting demonstration. Following the demonstration, we will have our monthly board meeting and potluck.

At our June 13 general meeting, Kira Veach will be our guest speaker. She will talk about the Feather River Community College Equine Studies Program and her own personal experience being a student in the program. The meeting will start at 6:00 pm at the Law Office of Brooks & Brooks. The board meeting will follow.

There will be no July meeting, but in August, we will have a potluck and pool party at the home of Tammie and David Veach at 3515 Keefer Road—watch for more details.

Have a fun and safe summer with your horse!
